

BALI

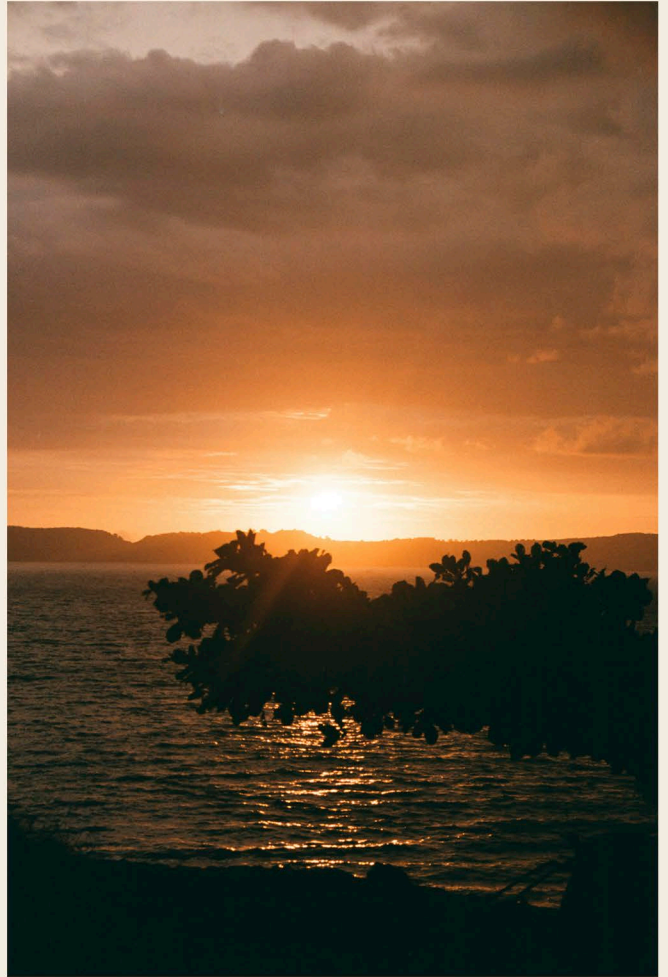

photographs by RUBEN BEERIS

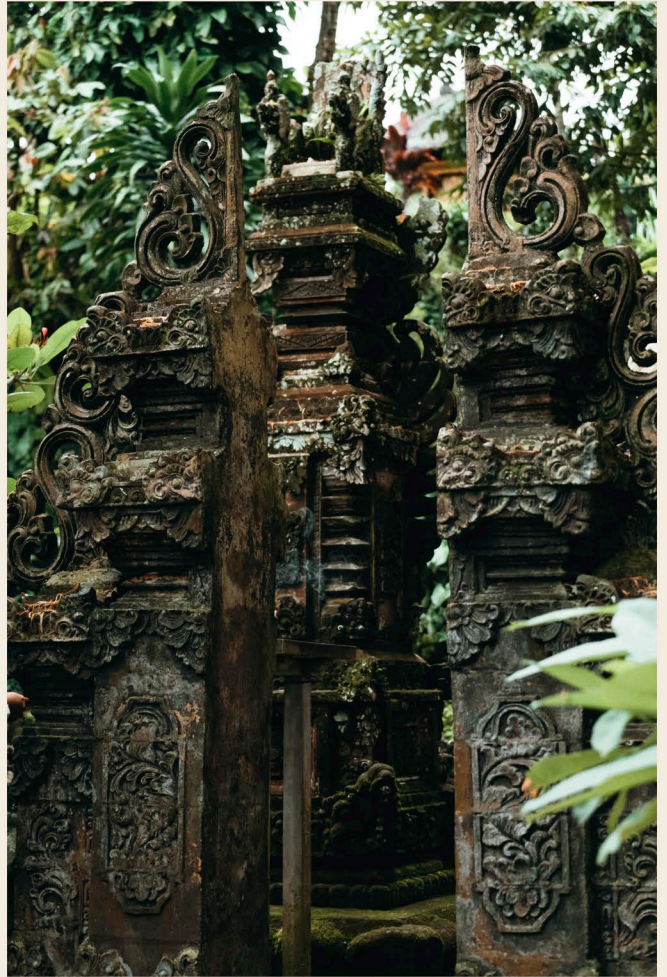

illustrations by RAMA INDIRAVAN

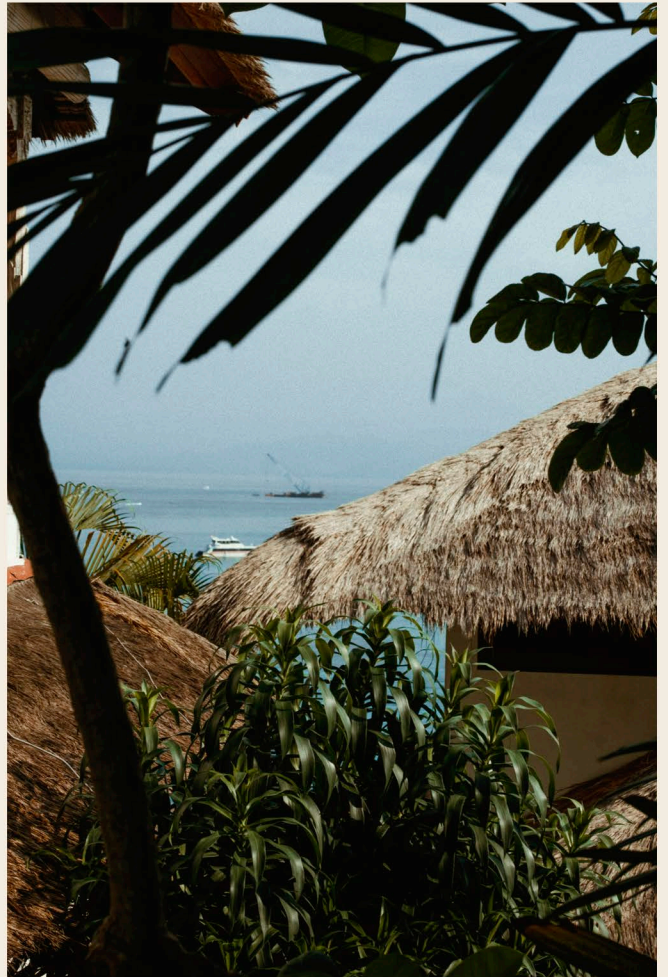

Dutch-born photographer Ruben Beeris has called Bali home for four years. With a new career in mind, Beeris embarked on a new adventure in Bali. For our first ever travel story, Beers guides us through the lesser known but equally magical pockets of the island, reminding us to travel further than the tourist towns of Canggu, Uluwatu and Ubud in order to unleash Bali's true identity.

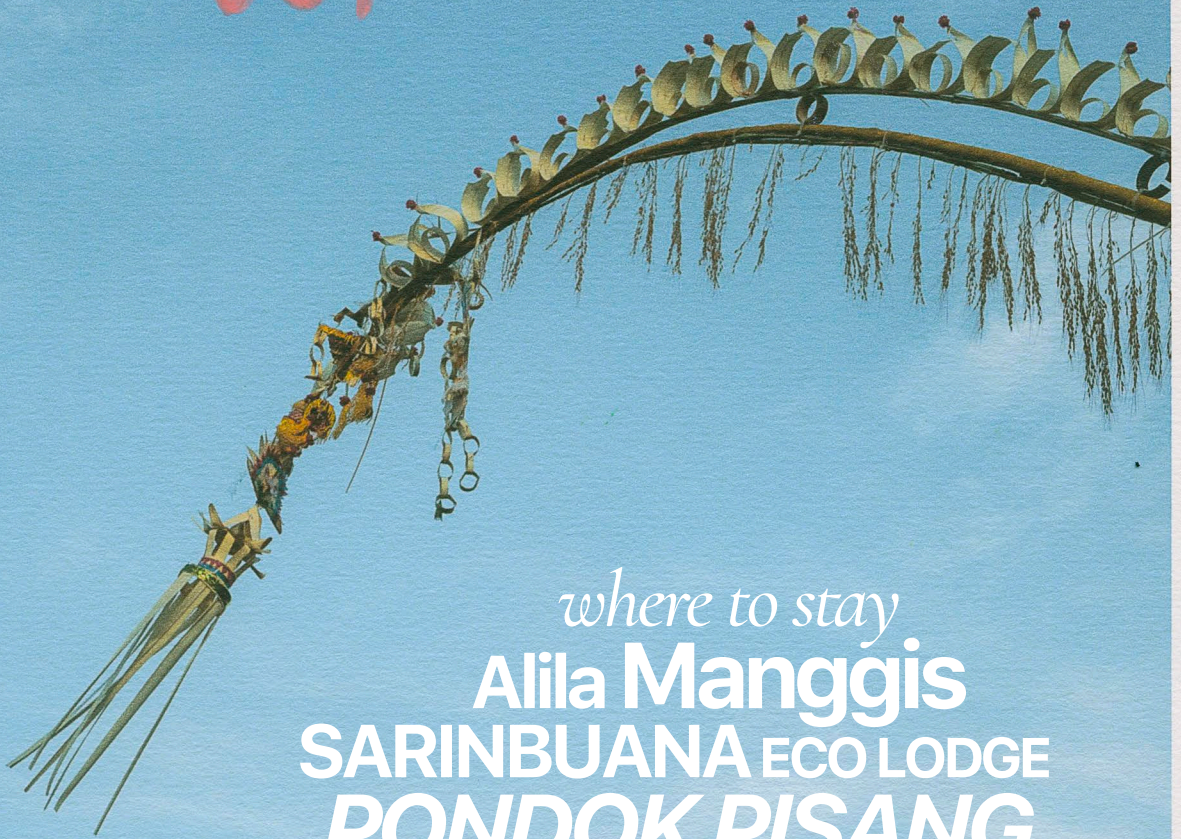

sekala

sekala means the seen (material)

niskala

niskala means the unseen (immaterial)

where to stay

Alila Manggis

SARINBUANA ECO LODGE

PONDOK PISANG

Lost Lindenberg

BALIAN

NUSA LEMBONGAN

Munduk AMED

SUMBERKIMA HILL

